IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Since the High-Level Symposium on Water will take place at the venue of the United Nations Ocean Conference, in Lisbon, those wishing to participate in the event must ensure they are accredited and/or registered to attend the 2022 UN Ocean Conference.

Detailed information on the mandatory accreditation and/or registration procedure for each category of participants in the 2022 UN Ocean Conference is to be found at the official website of the Conference: <https://www.un.org/en/conferences/ocean2022/participate>.

Different categories of participants will have different deadlines for completing their respective accreditation and/or registration procedures, whose concrete dates can be found following the above link under each specific category of participants.

In this regard, please note that a special accreditation procedure is currently running for non-governmental organizations, civil society organizations, academic institutions, the scientific community, the private sector and philanthropic organizations that are not yet accredited to the 2022 UN Ocean Conference. These organizations need to apply for special accreditation by 28 February 2022.
